VIAGGI MORDI E FUGGI IN GIRO PER L'EUROPA

About me

Celeste, 34 years old, born and raised in Tuscany. Behind my part-time employee desk, I dream about far away destinations that often look like the New York skyline, even though, at the moment, I have to settle for some quick precious getaway within dear old Europe.

*About my blog Be Right Back

*Be Right Back was created in June 2016, inspired by the desire to give a "voice" to the hundreds of photos I take during my trips. In addition to the travel diaries, I like to draw up little guides and give some advice to the ones who, just like us, have at disposal just a few days and a low budget. That's where the name of the blog comes from.

What the blog is about

- Prague and Czechia;
- travel diaries and guides about European destinations, especially Slovenia and Scotland;
- on the road trips in Europe;
- name origin of some cities #whatsinaname;
- short DIY trips with low budget;
- typical dishes.

My readers

- 63% women - 37% men
- 28% between 25 e 34, 19% between 35 e 44;
- Italians (88%), English speakers (9%).
- leaving for Prague or less known cities, such as Vitoria-Gasteiz and Maribor.
