IL BLOG DI VIAGGI DI CELESTE

About me

Celeste, 30-something, born and raised in Tuscany. When I'm away from my office desk, I spend my time writing and dreaming about far away destinations. Besides exploring our Europe one week-end at a time. With one, magnificent, constant: Czech Republic.

About my blog *Be Right Back

Be Right Back was created in June 2016, inspired by the desire to freeze in time the most beautiful memories from every trip, give a "voice" to the most significant shots. In addition to diaries, I like to draw up well-structured travel guides and give some advice to the ones who, just like us, have just a few days at disposal and a low budget. That's where the name of the blog comes from.
